FIVE THINGS GOD WANTS YOU TO KNOW:

- 1. God loves you dearly.
John 3:16 “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.”
- 2. We are all sinners and need to be saved.
Romans 3:2 “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”
- 3. God provided the only way of salvation.
Romans 5:8 “but God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”
- 4. Salvation is not earned. It is a gift.
Ephesians 2:8,9 “For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.”
Romans 6:23 “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”
- 5. We must receive God’s salvation personally.
John 1:12 “But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name.”
Romans 10:9 “If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

WELCOME TO HILLSIDE

New to Hillside? Our ushers have an information packet that we would like you to have. It will help you get acquainted with our church. We are excited that you are our guests; we would love to greet you after the service!

Take a Rest

God created the universe and everything in it in six "days" and He rested on the seventh day (Gen.2:2). God did not take a rest because He was tired but rested because He had completed the work of creation (Gen. 2:1-3). Each of the six days of creation came to an end and are described as having an evening and a morning (Gen. 1:5, 8, 13, 19, 23, 31). The seventh day is not so described and it is implied that the day of God's rest continues. So, the promise of entering His rest remains. The rest is God's in that He gives it and also enjoys it Himself.

The promise of rest for God's Old Covenant people whom He redeemed out of Egypt is understood in part by entering the Promised Land where the LORD gave them rest from their enemies (Deu.12:9-11). He Himself would abide there and perhaps in a sense share that rest with them. The ultimate meaning of rest was not exhausted, however, by living in Canaan (Hebrews 4:1-11). In fact, David in his day urged people who were already in Canaan to enter God's rest! For if Joshua had given them rest (in Canaan), then God would not have offered rest through David, saying, "Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." "There remains therefore a rest for the people of God" (vs.9). The rest of which Canaan was a shadow is ultimately to be found in the final resting place of God's people in the coming kingdom of God and the new Jerusalem (Heb.12:28). In fact, Abraham himself did not think of earthly Canaan as the final rest but he "waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God (11:9-10). Of the Old Testament saints who died in the faith it is said that they now desire a better, that is a heavenly country. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them (11:16). We have come to the Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem (see 12:22). We have come to this city but have not yet entered it. We are on our way! We are entering that rest but must be diligent to enter it! We must endure to the end at which time we will cease from our works as God did from His. Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' " "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them" (Revelation 14:13).
