“All Things Are Permissible?”
1 Corinthians
6:12-17

Sunday

10:00 AM Bible School

11:00 AM Morning Worship Service

Wednesday

7:00 PM Prayer Meeting

FIVE THINGS GOD WANTS YOU TO KNOW:

1. God loves you dearly.

John 3:16 “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only be-gotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have ever-lasting life.”

2. We are all sinners and need to be saved.

Romans 3:23 “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

3. God provided the only way of sal-vation.

Romans 5:8 “but God demon-strates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

4. Salvation is not earned. It is a gift.

Ephesians 2:8,9 “For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.”

Romans 6:23 “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eter-nal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

5. We must receive God’s salvation personally.

John 1:12 “But as many as re-ceived Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name.”

Romans 10:9 “If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

All Things Are Permissible?

Many believe that the following two sayings in this passage were repeated slogans of the Corinthians to justify their sin (1 Corinthians 6:12-17). “All things are permissible for me” (vs. 12), and “Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them” (vs. 13). Perhaps, they believed that their liberty in Christ freed them to do whatever they pleased including commit sexual immorality. “Perhaps, the Corinthians drew an analogy between the appetite for food and the desire for sex, arguing that one should satisfy the latter whenever one wishes, just as one satisfies the former.” (1 Corinthians, Thomas R. Schreiner, pg. 127) Perhaps, they were influenced by Greek philosophy to believe that since the body will be destroyed, it does not matter what you do in it. Paul countered by arguing the significance of the body citing the resurrection. Since the Christian's body will be raised, and is a member of Christ, it matters what we do in it. Furthermore, Paul concluded this section by indicating that it matters how we use our bodies because Christ purchased us with His own blood on the cross (vv. 18-20). “For you were bought with a price. So, glorify God in your body.” (vs. 20)

Adult Sunday School: In John's Gospel we observe the goal toward which the narrative is moving. That goal is the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. This goal or ultimate purpose for which Christ came is indicated early in story with the words of John the Baptist, “Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!” (see 1:29). In John, this goal or end is referred to as Christ's hour. In Christ's reply to his mother's concern that the wine was gone at a wedding feast they both attended, He said, “My hour has not yet come.” (2:4) In the gospel we observe the movement toward that hour in a number of ways.
